6. COMMENTS
   The only info that is denied is the home street address on six of the FOIA requests. If the home addresses were disclosed to the public, this would result in a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The authority for this exemption is the United States Code, Title 5, Section 552(b)(6). The release of this information would jeopardize government interests in protecting the personal privacy of individuals. We have written in (b)(6) where the address was marked out.
