14 July 1953

FROM: Mr. Roosevelt

1. Following received 13 July:

"A. National Movement Fraction held stormy two hour session 12 July with following results:

(1) Mossadegh Fraction to boycott future meetings Parliament and Mossadegh proposes call referendum to determine whether "people" desire him continue in office.

(2) Razavi opposed this procedure declaring he supported Mossadegh "up to now" but he not willing close Majlis.

(3) Argument over issue grew so intense that meeting was adjourned to 10 a.m. 13 July.

B. Following session reported A above Makki met privately with Mossadmi and Razavi, the three agreed that Pres. Eisenhower's letter had seriously weakened Mossadegh's position. Mossadmi and Razavi said "if situation so bad" they willing "get rid" of Mossadegh but they would insist Mossadegh be replaced by some member Rall. Front. Makki urged that decision be delayed until after 30 Tir (21 July) anniversary Cavans effort overthrow Mossadegh.

C. At private interview with Mossadegh 12 July, latter told Makki, the publisher of Etelaat:

(1) "very angrily" that Eisenhower letter "did not hurt Iran, but 1d did hurt American prestige in Iran, very much."

(2) The govt. "is prepared" for mass demonstrations expected 30 Tir (July 21).

(3) That Mossadegh has no intentions of going to Majlis 14 July for scheduled interpellation because "they (the opposition) want to kill me." Instead Mossadegh plans close Majlis and call for public referendum.

Eisenhower letter has had tremendous impact and Parliament press people and foreign policy now turning against Mossadegh. His position is most critical of career. Only weapon left to him is power of arrest. I expect mass arrests of opposition to begin from 14 July. Any attempt by Mossadegh to close Majlis "sure" to alienate deputies; "they don't want to lose their jobs and positions of influence.""
