CONTRIBUTIONS

Detail the new incident in your report, and explain the actions taken to resolve it. Include any lessons learned from this incident, and suggest improvements to prevent similar occurrences in the future.

In the context of the document, the contributions section likely discusses the impact of the incident on the organization, the steps taken to mitigate any negative effects, and the strategies implemented to ensure such incidents do not recur. This could involve a detailed analysis of the root causes, the roles of different stakeholders, and the measures put in place to enhance safety and security protocols.