In the case of YET US LIVES, the Censorship Commission informed USIS that they would not give a permit now in all probability. The attitude of the USIS commission represents the viewpoint of the USIS. It is not in the ESUS. The commission has the authority to give permission or to refuse a permit. If the present attitude of the Censorship Commission continues, USIS will request the commission to give permission or to refuse a permit.

USIS is advised to use films of the same type as those films which were refused by the commission. It is also possible that the commission will order the films to be submitted for viewing. If the commission is of the opinion that the films cannot be shown, it will order the films to be destroyed.

The commission has also reviewed the previous communications and illustrations relating to the subjects of the films. It is not possible to show the subject of the films, nor can it be shown that the commission has refused to show the films. The commission has not refused to show the films. It has been asked to show the films, but has refused to do so.

The commission has also reviewed the previous communications and illustrations relating to the subjects of the films. It is not possible to show the subject of the films, nor can it be shown that the commission has refused to show the films. The commission has not refused to show the films. It has been asked to show the films, but has refused to do so.

The commission has also reviewed the previous communications and illustrations relating to the subjects of the films. It is not possible to show the subject of the films, nor can it be shown that the commission has refused to show the films. The commission has not refused to show the films. It has been asked to show the films, but has refused to do so.

The commission has also reviewed the previous communications and illustrations relating to the subjects of the films. It is not possible to show the subject of the films, nor can it be shown that the commission has refused to show the films. The commission has not refused to show the films. It has been asked to show the films, but has refused to do so.

The commission has also reviewed the previous communications and illustrations relating to the subjects of the films. It is not possible to show the subject of the films, nor can it be shown that the commission has refused to show the films. The commission has not refused to show the films. It has been asked to show the films, but has refused to do so.

The commission has also reviewed the previous communications and illustrations relating to the subjects of the films. It is not possible to show the subject of the films, nor can it be shown that the commission has refused to show the films. The commission has not refused to show the films. It has been asked to show the films, but has refused to do so.

The commission has also reviewed the previous communications and illustrations relating to the subjects of the films. It is not possible to show the subject of the films, nor can it be shown that the commission has refused to show the films. The commission has not refused to show the films. It has been asked to show the films, but has refused to do so.

The commission has also reviewed the previous communications and illustrations relating to the subjects of the films. It is not possible to show the subject of the films, nor can it be shown that the commission has refused to show the films. The commission has not refused to show the films. It has been asked to show the films, but has refused to do so.

The commission has also reviewed the previous communications and illustrations relating to the subjects of the films. It is not possible to show the subject of the films, nor can it be shown that the commission has refused to show the films. The commission has not refused to show the films. It has been asked to show the films, but has refused to do so.

The commission has also reviewed the previous communications and illustrations relating to the subjects of the films. It is not possible to show the subject of the films, nor can it be shown that the commission has refused to show the films. The commission has not refused to show the films. It has been asked to show the films, but has refused to do so.

The commission has also reviewed the previous communications and illustrations relating to the subjects of the films. It is not possible to show the subject of the films, nor can it be shown that the commission has refused to show the films. The commission has not refused to show the films. It has been asked to show the films, but has refused to do so.

The commission has also reviewed the previous communications and illustrations relating to the subjects of the films. It is not possible to show the subject of the films, nor can it be shown that the commission has refused to show the films. The commission has not refused to show the films. It has been asked to show the films, but has refused to do so.

The commission has also reviewed the previous communications and illustrations relating to the subjects of the films. It is not possible to show the subject of the films, nor can it be shown that the commission has refused to show the films. The commission has not refused to show the films. It has been asked to show the films, but has refused to do so.

The commission has also reviewed the previous communications and illustrations relating to the subjects of the films. It is not possible to show the subject of the films, nor can it be shown that the commission has refused to show the films. The commission has not refused to show the films. It has been asked to show the films, but has refused to do so.

The commission has also reviewed the previous communications and illustrations relating to the subjects of the films. It is not possible to show the subject of the films, nor can it be shown that the commission has refused to show the films. The commission has not refused to show the films. It has been asked to show the films, but has refused to do so.

The commission has also reviewed the previous communications and illustrations relating to the subjects of the films. It is not possible to show the subject of the films, nor can it be shown that the commission has refused to show the films. The commission has not refused to show the films. It has been asked to show the films, but has refused to do so.

The commission has also reviewed the previous communications and illustrations relating to the subjects of the films. It is not possible to show the subject of the films, nor can it be shown that the commission has refused to show the films. The commission has not refused to show the films. It has been asked to show the films, but has refused to do so.

The commission has also reviewed the previous communications and illustrations relating to the subjects of the films. It is not possible to show the subject of the films, nor can it be shown that the commission has refused to show the films. The commission has not refused to show the films. It has been asked to show the films, but has refused to do so.