EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

November 20, 1974

with our constitutional form of government, yet we are being approached by casting our ballot for what we thought was right. This press has given an even greater responsibility now than ever in the history of the United States. The responsibility now is for the American people to be kept abreast of what is going on in Congress.

Although the labor publications has come out with the following statement: "The Nation needs a creative and responsible Congress that will cooperate with the new President when it feels he is on the right course, but be strong enough to stop needed legislation itself when the President's programs are inadequate."

On the surface this sounds like a good statement, but can't you see the imposed threat?

The Republican party MUST begin their recruitment program immediately, and upon the news that the President's programs are inadequate, we can survive the next two years without going to war.

The country climateed for a change. The congressmen lived their lives as if it was for the best, or was it just jumping out of the frying pan into the fire.

AN AMENDMENT TO RATIONALIZE THE DATING POLICY ON GFO PUBLICATIONS

Hon. Donald M. Fraser

October 15, 1974

Mr. Fraser, Mr. Speaker, I am sure that my colleagues have shared my annoyance at finding that many materials issued by the Government Printing Off incongruous with the months and dates of the publications. This creates difficulties for congressional staff members and researchers, who often must rely on full dates of publication in all GPO documents. Therefore, I have introduced the following bill:

An Act to amend Section 44, United States Code, to require that the date of publication of any material printed by the Government Printing Office, or of a publication purporting to be printed under chapter 5 of that title, appear on the first page of the material.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled...
