Department of Defense Directive

SUBJECT: Defense Special Missile and Astronautics Center (C) (Defense/SMAC)

Refs.: (a) DoD Directive 5105.21, "Defense Intelligence Agency," August 1, 1961
(c) DoD Directive 3115.14, "Communications Intelligence (CIGEN) (C)," March 19, 1959
(d) DoD Directive 5115.2, "Electronics Intelligence (ELINT) (C)," March 19, 1959

I. PURPOSE

This directive establishes a management arrangement for (a) control of DoD missile and space intelligence collection and processing activities directed against foreign missile and space activities, and (b) current analysis and reporting of foreign missile and space events. This directive complements functions and responsibilities assigned by references (a), (b), (c), and (d).

II. APPlicABILITY

The provisions of this directive apply to all DoD components.

III. DEFINITIONS AND SCOPE

A. Foreign missile and space activities as used in this directive cover operational and activities.

B. DoD missile and space collection activities as used in this directive are those activities employing sensor devices designed specifically for or directed exclusively to the collection of foreign missile and space intelligence.

C. As used in this directive the term "responsibility" is defined as "who to do," and technical control as "how to do" the
7. FUNCTIONS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

A. The Director, NSA, and the Director, National Security Agency (NSA) shall jointly establish at NSA, the Central//National Security Agency, a Central//National Security Agency. NSA, and an Agency of Defense Intelligence (AODI) personnel.

B. Twenty-four-hour surveillance of foreign missile and space activities.

C. National technical control of all DOD intelligence collection activities directed against foreign missile and space activities.

D. Providing technical support, including supervision and operation, to all DOD missile and space intelligence collection activities to ensure that the performance of their respective missions.

E. Current analysis and reporting of foreign missile and space activities based upon data collected by DOD missile and space intelligence collection activities and reviewed at Defense Intelligence.

2. The NSA component will maintain mechanisms to assess technical control and operation of NSA intelligence collection activities conducted within the scope of references A and B, and will periodically assess and technically support and processing activities of all DOD components. The NSA component will assess and technically support all other DOD missile and space intelligence collection activities.

7. ASSIGNMENT OF DUTIES AND AUTHORITY

A. The Director, NSA, and the Director, NSA, shall jointly establish and maintain a memorandum and procedures, methods and systems necessary to carry out the objectives of this Directive. The Director of Defense Intelligence (DODI) will be selected jointly by the Director, NSA and NSA.

B. The authority of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and Directors of the Joint Intelligence Centers, JIC, is preserved in this activity, remain unchanged.
E. Commanders of unified and specified commands will exercise operational control over collection units or facilities as directed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Operational control of collection facilities provided by military services and not assigned to the unified or specified commands remains in normal operational command channels.

VI. EFFECTIVE DATE AND IMPLEMENTATION

A. This directive is effective upon publication. Its provisions will be implemented as determined jointly by the Director, DIA, and Director, NEA.

B. All DoD components will review their existing directives, instructions, and regulations for conformity; make necessary changes thereto within 90 days; and notify the Director, DIA, Director, NEA, and Secretary of Defense when changes are completed.

C. Transfer of funds, facilities, equipment, personnel authorizations, and civilian personnel will be accomplished under established DoD procedures.

[Signature]
Secretary of Defense