The Mexican government forces have still not captured guerrilla leader Lucio CABANAS. It is not optimistic about the government’s chances of success. He said the terrain is very difficult and there are only about 25 guerrillas to capture, so the mission is very difficult.

This IIR should not receive foreign dissemination since such dissemination could lead to the compromise of the collection activity involved.