Dear Bill:

I am meeting the Cuban delegation in Mexico City on Saturday, February 8th. At first they were reluctant to meet unless I was able to conclude a final deal. After some reflection they became agreeable. I anticipate a final deal at that time, lacking only your blessing. If my anticipation is correct, I will have to ask you then for the courtesy of prompt consideration as time deadlines of those both in baseball and the networks will become critical.

Kind regards.

Sincerely yours,

The Honorable William D. Rogers
