Dear Fabio:

I am sorry that communications difficulties between our two countries have prevented us from discussing with each other the various developments which have occurred since we met in Mexico City.

I hope it is abundantly clear to you that our inability to achieve the objective which we all worked towards was not the result of any lack of effort or commitment on our part.

We are studying various alternate possibilities. If any of these seem feasible, we will discuss them with you. At the very least we hope to be able to accomplish our goal by March, 1976.

I would certainly like to have any ideas you may have and would welcome the opportunity to meet with you again in Mexico City whenever you think that would be useful.

Sincerely yours,

Senor Fabio Ruiz Vinajeras
