

SH 164

*

TELECON
Frank Sinatra/ Secretary Kissinger
January 16, 1976
8:09 pm

RELEASED IN PART
B6

S: Hello, Henry, how are you?

K: Ok. How are you?

S: Just fine. Do you want me to straighten out Angola for you?

K: I need some of your enforcers.

S: I see you have your hands full. I called you about the dinner for the Prime Minister.

K: Yes?

S: Would you consider... we have 3 performers, it will be very quick. I have planned to do 12 minutes. It would be a marvelous close if I introduced you and you said some nice things about the Prime Minister.

K: Frank, fond as I am of you, if someone else gets 12 minutes, I want 12 minutes.

S: Laughter. Ok. I will give you 12 minutes. How's Nancy?

K: [Redacted]
S: [Redacted]
K: [Redacted]
S: [Redacted]
K: [Redacted]

B6

I will do it about 5 minutes. I will make a few brief remarks.

S: That's right.

K: I will be happy to do that. What is ~~the~~ it? Black Tie?

S: Yes. When I know you are there, I will call you. You will be staying at the same hotel.

K: The Beverly Hilton?

S: Yes.

Sinatra continued

K: I will be there a day early.

S: That's fine. What are you doing for dinner the night before?

K: I am giving a talk for Buff Chandler.

S: Why don't I wait until it gets closer?

K: Ok. I would love to see you. I really look forward to seeing you.

S: I will bring the ~~SECRET~~ formula for Angola.

K: I just need a few of your people. We have the Jews in one part of the world.
We need some Italians.

Laughter.

END