Minister of Presidency Carlos Flores morning April 4 to ensure that GOH is on top of its strategy for April 5 OAS meeting. After checking, Flores called back to say that Honduran OAS representative had prepared draft resolution emphasizing Five-plus-Five meeting and need for global, comprehensive solution to Central American problems. Flores assured Ambassador that their OAS rep would make necessary contacts in Washington. Ambassador responded that coordination appeared necessary and urgent lest Nicaragua somehow turned tables on us at tomorrow's meeting.

3. By way of follow up, Embassy officer called Foreign Office Advisor Policarpo Callejas to ensure that Ministry was in touch with their OAS Ambassador in Washington, which in fact they are.

4. Please advise what further action, if any, is needed from this end.
