2. When General Alvarez and I discussed cancellation of Under Secretary Ikle's visit on August 31, he expressed hope that other members of Dr. Ikle's team might be able to come to Tegucigalpa soon. Alvarez said there were a number of issues he was keen to discuss ASAP, including A-37 deliveries, pilot training, radar and artillery acquisition.
3. Alvarez specifically mentioned Deputy Assistant Secretary Sanchez and wondered if he couldn't lead a small group here in the near future.
4. I certainly endorse Alvarez' request and would welcome a visit by DAS Sanchez and others as soon as convenient.

It occurs to me that Mr. Sanchez might wish to consider combining such a visit with acceptance of invitation to participate in September 24-26 seminar in Tegucigalpa (See TEGUCIGALPA 7228).
