understood its implications. They were non-committal as to whether they were prepared to adopt specific language singling out Nicaragua. They did both, however, ask if Foreign Minister Volio was in possession of similar draft. Ambassador replied that our Ambassador in San Jose had received instructions to make similar demarche.

4. Meeting with Paz Barnica was very matter of fact. Meeting with Dr. Suazo was somewhat more animated and took place in context of his outrage over blowing up of Tegucigalpa electric distribution system on evening July 4. Ambassador arrived just as Dr. Suazo had completed two and one-half hour meeting with General Alvarez and other top military commanders.
