Cuban Actions - DOD

- 1) U-2 reconnaissance - complete & continuous - fast read-out
- 2) F-8U - standby alert for low-level reconnaissance
- 3) planning for various military actions
 - a) air strikes limited to MRBM sites - known or suspected - (airfields with MIG 21's & IL 28's - nuclear force areas)
 - b) air strikes expanded to include SAM sites, coastal defenses, missile sites and missile launching patrol boats
 - c) general air strikes against all military targets - plan 312
 - d) naval air blockade
 - e) invasion - Plan 316 - 90,000 men ashore in 5-7 days
 - f) " " " 314 - full scale
- 4) air defense preparations for SE US
- 5) mobilization planning - call-ups in 102 stages
- 6) world-wide force alert planning

- ^{direct} no military action unless dictated by political considerations

if S. moves assume that it will react in kind somewhere in world
This would in turn call for U.S. response which NATO and other allies might not join

- Castro's problem should continue to be dealt with by political & economic means which U.S. could accentuate by announcing MRBM sites
